

Senior Partnerships Officer

Job pack
September 2026

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in this role at Turn2us.

By taking your next step with us, you'd be joining an organisation where the work really matters. It matters to the parent who worries about keeping their children warm this winter. It matters to the colleague who falls ill and can no longer work. It matters to those of us who lie awake worrying about mounting bills. It matters to us because none of us should have to face these challenges alone.

We're looking forward to hearing from people who are deeply committed to our vision: a future where everyone in the UK has financial security so they can thrive. We should have enough money to cover the basics, enjoy our lives and plan for the future. We believe this is a basic right everyone should have, regardless of age, race, whether someone is gay, straight, trans, able-bodied, disabled, married or single.

You'd be joining a team who are determined to change the system that affects so many of us. I'm inspired every day by their depth of knowledge and curiosity, their highly competent humility, and their commitment to improving people's lives. From our programmes team, who work relentlessly to help people thrive, to those who create and manage our innovative online tools; our passionate team is determined to create lasting, tangible impact.

One good example of this is our Benefits Calculator. In 2024/2025, over 2.4 million calculations were completed using the tool. We know that 60% of those users (1.5 million) found new benefits they could apply for. Similarly, our new PIP Helper tool, built with people who have experience of claiming Personal Independence Payment (PIP), is helping people navigate a system described as "complex" and "exhausting".

We know that we can't do any of this alone. For our work to make the biggest possible difference, it must be shaped by the voices and insights of people with recent or current experience of financial insecurity – our co-production partners. Their expertise is the golden thread running through all our work: they know the system, and they know what needs to be done to change it. And this collaboration doesn't just happen on an individual level. We build partnerships with trusted, community organisations – deepening our impact and our understanding of what people need to thrive.

We know, too, that this expert, collaborative work is built on a foundation of a strong culture. At Turn2us we strive to create an environment where colleagues look forward to coming to work and feel truly valued for what they do. We should feel encouraged to try new things without fear of failure, but with a commitment to learn from mistakes. We should all be working with a sense of urgency to co-create change, with an understanding that we need to look after ourselves and each other.

Central to this, is creating a diverse and inclusive working environment. We know that Turn2us benefits hugely from colleagues with a range of backgrounds, who enrich our work with valuable, different perspectives and experiences. To nurture this and create an environment where everyone feels safe and seen, we take equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB) very seriously. It's embedded in our organisational values and in our guiding principles, owned individually and collectively at all levels of the charity.

To encourage this diversity of thought and experience, we're open to people who would bring transferable skills to this role. Maybe you haven't walked a 'traditional' career path, but you've built the skills to do this role, and do it well. If you can demonstrate a clear commitment to our values and ethos, and a deep personal commitment to our vision, we'd love to hear from you.

Thomas Lawson,
Chief Executive, Turn2us
Chair, Elizabeth Finn Homes

Financial security goes beyond survival

At Turn2us, we see every day how the right support at the right time can transform lives. It can mean having enough money to put food on the table and pay the bills, and the ability to thrive, not just survive. We all need financial security.

Financial security involves having enough money to comfortably cover your monthly expenses, save for your future and, most crucially, recover from financial shocks.

We want to see a society where everyone has the right to financial security. Our ambition to bring about this change forms the backbone of our strategy.

But it's not enough for Turn2us to demand change from a society and economic system at the root of so much financial insecurity for so many of us. We also need to model the change we and many other partners know is needed.

Our previous strategy, which focused on the financial shocks caused by life-changing events, enabled us to build strong foundations for our evolving ambition. We have since strengthened our safeguarding practice and sharpened our focus on equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB).

We increased the reach and outcomes of our products and services by co-producing them with people with in-depth experience of the problems we were trying to address.

Over the last three years we have listened to and worked alongside individuals and families who have steered us towards an emphasis on financial security – enabling people to thrive, not just survive.

The growing scale of suffering compels us to increase our focus on challenging an outdated, unfair economic system.

Whilst overhauling the current system will not be straightforward, there is a growing desire across civil society, the commercial sector, and parts of the state to work together to change the status quo so that more people can work together to overcome financial shocks and rebuild the strength and resilience of their communities.

We will join forces with a wide range of partners, facilitating (with others) a broad coalition for change.

As we progress through our strategy, we will take steps towards that goal of designing a fairer economy, working both with UK-wide decision-makers and the people and families at the centre of communities driving change.

At Turn2us, we're well-placed to broaden our reach, deepen our impact and help drive the necessary change.

Join us in building a better future for us all.

About Turn2us

Our vision

Everyone in the UK has financial security so that they can thrive.

Our purpose

Our purpose is to offer support to those of us facing financial shocks and together we will challenge the systems and perceptions that cause financial insecurity.

We do not underestimate the scale of the challenge but we believe working together can achieve real change.

Our values

Financial security for all

It's not acceptable to us that we live in an unjust society where a financial shock becoming a financial crisis is more likely for those already facing barriers to thriving.

Everyone should have access to appropriate rights, resources and support. We actively tackle prejudice and barriers to access.

We face into the causes of financial inequality, challenging the status quo, ourselves and others in doing so.

We believe this is urgent. We will not stand by as another generation grows up without adequate money and the resources to thrive.

Listen, learn and improve

To be effective, we need to deeply understand people's experiences, the financial challenges they face, what's important to them and how best we, and others, can provide support through a financial crisis or shock.

We are on a constant cycle of listening, learning and looking to improve. This gives us confidence in our direction. Listening attentively to people's lived experiences. Learning from all we hear and all we experience. Looking to improve how we support, respond and progress.

We hold ourselves to account and want to be held to account by those we work with and serve. Each and every one of us has our own worth and value. And it is in the spirit of humility and equality that we hear, learn and improve the most.

Together we succeed

We are successful when we collaborate, co-create, partner and work together.

Financial hardship can happen to anyone and for many reasons. Everyone's needs and situation are unique. We make no assumptions, no judgements.

Financial exclusion can be complex and complicated so we must work together with those we serve as well as other partners.

Impatient

We can't rest until financial security is achieved for all. To create change so that people can thrive we need to be proactive, take initiative, create momentum and drive forward with energy, determination and conviction. This sense of urgency is at the heart of our culture and all we do.

How we work

Our three strategic priorities:

Offer high quality information and support. We will be led by people experiencing financial insecurity, the communities we work with and our partners, and our improvement focused evaluation, to develop integrated services people need.

Strengthen communities through place-based programmes. We will develop existing programmes and start new ones, designed by and rooted in communities across the UK. Led by local organisations and people with experience of financial hardship, we will address financial insecurity and economic injustice together.

Help build a fair economy through systems change. Building on our data, insight and learning, we will campaign to build an economy that includes everyone and that we can all contribute to. We will work in partnership to create new systems that build financial security for all.

Our three guiding principles:

Championing equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB). We know black, Asian and minoritised ethnic communities, disabled people, women and those from LGBTQIA+ communities, are more likely to experience financial hardship. Being inclusive and creating belonging will be central to the way we run our own organisation, as well as the way in which we design and offer our services.

Upholding human rights. No one should have to choose between heating their home or feeding their children. Our grantmaking, for example, addresses these wrongs and upholds people's rights.

Working for a fair journey to net zero economy. We will explore ways to support a transition to net zero in 2050 that protects people's employment and shares the benefits of a healthier, greener economy.

Our three organisational foundations:

Our culture. We will model the change we want to see across the UK. Our work will be rooted in partnership, respect, humility and mutual support.

Our finances. We will make the best possible use of our assets and investments and ensure they are on a thoroughly ethical footing. We will improve the returns from our care home business, Elizabeth Finn Homes.

Our brand. How we present ourselves and how we are experienced by everyone we meet is crucial for the delivery of this strategy. Our name – Turn2us – is both an invitation to people who need support, and a challenge to those in power, to listen to those voices of experience.

What we do

Turn2us is a national charity offering practical help to people facing financial insecurity. In 2025:

Over 2.1 million people completed a Turn2us benefits calculation.

1.2 million of Turn2us Benefits Calculator users found new benefits to apply for.

Turn2us made grants worth over a total of £2.5 million for almost 1,732 people in financial need across the UK.

Over 830,000 searches were completed using the Turn2us Grants Search tool.

Our Turn2us PIP Helper tool has attracted over 513,000 page views.

The cost of financial insecurity

The most recent poverty data reveals a deepening crisis. The Joseph Rowntree Foundation's UK Poverty 2026 report reveals that 21% of the UK population (13.8 million people) lived in poverty in 2023/24. Critically, poverty has deepened: 48% of those in poverty (6.8 million) now experience 'very deep poverty' (below 40% of median income after housing costs), the highest rate on record. Child poverty has risen for three consecutive years to 4.5 million. Destitution more than doubled between 2017 and 2022, affecting 3.8 million people, while food insecurity increased by 60% between 2021/22 and 2023/24. See JRF UK Poverty 2026: The Essential Guide. ↗

UK inflation has continued to soar in recent years, now standing at 3.4% in December 2025, up from 3.2% in November 2025. Over the period May 2021 to May 2024, UK consumer prices increased by 20.8% in total. See ONS Consumer Price Inflation December 2025. ↗

Financial insecurity affects specific groups disproportionately. Research shows those most affected by rising costs are women (81% compared with 73% of men); people with disabilities (82% compared with 75% of non-disabled people); and those with children under five (90% compared with 76% of non-parents). Nationally, 7.0 million UK adults (13%) are behind on at least one household bill, according to National Debtline & Money Advice Trust research from March 2025, with 1.4 million behind on energy, council tax and water bills. See Money Advice Trust Press Release \(March 2025\). ↗

Fuel poverty remains a critical issue in the UK. According to the Annual Fuel Poverty Statistics Report 2025, 2.7 million households in England (11%) were in fuel poverty in 2024, with projections indicating this will have risen to 2.78 million (11.2%) in 2025. The Department for Energy Security and Net Zero reported that 8.99 million households (36.3%) spent more than 10% of their income on energy in 2024, up from 8.73 million in 2023. See the Annual Fuel Poverty Statistics Report 2025.

Household debt continues to rise significantly. By March 2025, average household debt reached £66,892 with credit card debt totalling £73.2 billion (£2,579 per household). Citizens Advice reports over half of specialist debt clients now spend more than they earn, with average debts of £10,000 per household (up 24% since 2019). Household bill debts averaged £2,875 per client in 2024, up from £2,194 in 2022. See Citizens Advice National Red Index 2025. ↗

Ethnic inequalities in poverty remain stark. Recent JRF data shows around half of people in Pakistani (51%) and Bangladeshi (53%) households are in poverty after housing costs. Black and minority ethnic people are 2.5 times more likely to be in poverty than white people, with the poverty rate for Black people at 39% in 2023/24, compared to 18% for white people. In fuel poverty, 15% of Black households were affected in 2024 — the highest rate of all ethnic groups. Matthew's story

“We try and cut back where we can over the school holidays because we aren't able to afford to go anywhere. Sometimes it feels like we are failing our children because we can't afford to take them on days out when on paper we have 'good jobs'.”

Matthew,
Turn2us service user

Matthew, Turn2us service user.

We are a single income household, my wife is training to be a nurse and I am a recently qualified teacher, we have two children. Our rent has increased, gas and electric has gone through the roof, fuel costs for us to travel to work keep going up.

I never thought we'd be in this position but I got in touch with a Turn2us adviser who gave me the confidence to apply for more universal credit and showed me how to use the benefits calculator – and they also offered an understanding ear.

I think more people should speak up about their experience, so many people must feel alone just like we did. This is why I have been helping Turn2us with media interviews and telling our story in different ways, for example telling our family story as a graphic in The Big Issue.

Finding different platforms to speak about being in work and still struggling helps get the message across that anyone can struggle, it's not our fault, but there is help out there.

From your hiring manager

Thank you for your interest in joining Turn2us as our Senior Partnerships Officer.

It's 2026, and too many people across the UK are still struggling to afford the essentials they need. At Turn2us, we want to change that. We provide practical information, digital tools and financial support to help people experiencing financial insecurity, while working to challenge the systems and perceptions that cause it.

Partnerships are a really important part of how we do this. We work with organisations across the UK, from combined authorities to national charities and advice organisations, including DWP, Greater Manchester Combined Authority, Independent Age, Trussell, Christians Against Poverty and Advice UK. Through these relationships, we help more people access and benefit from tools such as our Benefits Calculator, Grants Search and PIP Helper, while learning from our partners about what people experiencing financial insecurity need.

We're looking for someone to help us grow and strengthen these relationships through digital tools. You'll support new organisations to partner with Turn2us, build strong relationships with existing partners and help them get the most from our tools and partnership offer. You'll also listen to what our partners tell us, helping us understand what's working, what could be better and how our partnerships can have greater impact.

This is a varied role. One day you might be shaping a partner newsletter, another you could be running a tools demo session for our partnership network, responding to partner feedback or working with colleagues to understand how well our partnerships are working.

You don't need to have followed a particular career path to be right for this role. We're interested in people who are great at building relationships, communicating clearly, staying organised and bringing people together. Your experience might come from the charity, social impact or another sector, and we value the different perspectives and strengths people bring.

If you're excited by the opportunity to build partnerships that help more people access financial support, we'd love to hear from you.

Best wishes,

Katy Palmer
Strategic Partnerships Manager

Interviews & Adjustments

What to expect from an interview at Turn2us

A first-round interview will typically last around 45 minutes, and will take place online, over Microsoft Teams.

We will send you a list of the interview panel members in advance, as well as a list of the areas that will be covered by the interview questions.

We'll ask you a set series of questions, and there will also be time at the end for you to ask us any questions you have about the role.

Some roles may also require a task to be completed in advance or during the interview; your interview confirmation email will provide all the details on this.

During the interview, it's fine to ask the panel to repeat a question, or to take a moment or two to think before answering.

We want you to feel as comfortable as possible during the interview so please don't worry about your background interview space - we know this can be a challenge with remote working!

Second-round interviews take place in-person, either at the Turn2us London Hub or the Turn2us Edinburgh Hub. The second interview is meant to be an informal conversation between you and the interview panel to see if the fit is right on both ends, so we will not share interview questions in advance of this.

How to prepare for an interview

Make sure you have access to the internet, a working webcam, and a computer or headphones with a microphone.

Prepare well – read about the role you applied for and Turn2us before you sit down for your interview.

Consider how your values fit with Turn2us' purpose, and bring this to life in your answers.

Think of examples of when you've demonstrated the behaviour or skills needed for this role in a previous role or in your personal life.

Prepare any questions you have for the panel ahead of time.

Questions you ask the panel aren't scored as part of the interview so make sure you're asking questions that will help you decide whether the role is right for you.

Reasonable adjustments

If you are invited to an interview, and you have a disability or long-term health condition, please let us know if there is anything we can do or should have in mind to help you participate in the interview.

Please inform us of your reasonable adjustment needs when filling out your application, and/or if you are invited to a first interview.

This information will be shared with the interview panel to ensure appropriate adjustments are made.

We're very happy to make adjustments to ensure any accessibility requirements are met.

Examples of reasonable adjustments we can provide include:

- Sending you this job pack in a Microsoft PowerPoint or Word format.
- Sending you the full interview questions in advance, instead of interview question areas.
- Copying the interview questions into the Microsoft Teams chat during your interview.
- Turning on captioning during your interview.
- Giving you more time to complete a task during your interview.
- Changing the interview location to accommodate accessibility needs.

Things to remember during the interview

Relax and take time to think about a question before you answer it.

Ask for clarification if you don't understand a question.

We won't ask you trick questions or try to 'catch you out'. All the questions we ask you will be relevant to the job.

If you have any technical problems during the interview, let us know.

If you cannot attend any of the offered interview slots, please let us know – please note we cannot guarantee we will be able to provide an alternative slot, but we will try our best to!
